Schedule C Departmental Records Schedules

(Classes of records that are not common to all City Departments, and that support internal departmental operations)

HOW TO INTERPRET THIS DOCUMENT

The purpose of the Records Retention and Classification Schedule is to describe and classify types of records in City of Winnipeg Departments, and to specify how long records must be kept before they may be destroyed or transferred to the Archives.

The LIST OF RECORDS CLASSIFICATIONS is provided in alphabetical order by department. (The special operating agencies have been grouped together under the heading Special Operating Agencies.) Within each department are set out the categories and subcategories of records for which that department is responsible.

Because of reorganizations and changes of name within the City administrative structure, the order of the records classification has changed from the order in By-law No. 166/2003. As a result the records classification numbers are no longer sequential. Nevertheless, for purposes of continuity and administration, the records classification numbers have been retained and are provided in brackets immediately following the title of the records classification. However, new section and subsection numbers immediately preceding the name of the department and subcategory of record now reflect the location of the records classification in Schedule C.

The RETENTION AND DISPOSITION SCHEDULES after the List of Records Classifications contain descriptions of the classes of records, and examples of the types of documents that may be found in each class, with instructions regarding retention and disposition. As with the List of Records Classifications, they are provided in alphabetical order by department with sequential section numbers provided before the heading and a classification number immediately following the heading.

FUNCTION means the function that is supported by the class of records.

DESCRIPTION is a description of the types of documents that might be found in a class of records.

RETENTION AND DISPOSITION indicates the minimum period of time that records must be kept before they may be destroyed. Departments may keep records longer than the retention period indicated as required. Where there are conflicts between retention periods in Schedule B and C, the class with the longer retention period shall be used.

The ARCHIVAL disposition means that records must be transferred to the City Archives after they are no longer operationally useful and shall be retained or destroyed by the City Archivist in accordance with section 3 of Schedule A.
